Meet our Tutors

CHERYL DEGRAAF
Fall Visual Arts Tutor

Cheryl DeGraaf has been homeschooling her nine children for the past 25 years. She has often taught art, as well as speech & debate, in the homeschooling community.

JOY SCHAEFER
Music Tutor

Joy Schaefer has a masters degree in music education. She has experience teaching music in a variety of educational settings and regularly composes pieces for various instruments. She is a mother of five and a grandmother of two and enjoys hiking, biking, playing with her dog, and, of course, making music!

MATT AND HANNAH SINGLETARY

Common Arts Tutors

The Singletarys are homesteaders at Stone House Farm in Beaver Falls, where they care for sheep, chickens, orchard, garden, and bees. Matt is a Mechanical Engineer, and Hannah has a B.S. in Nursing.

TANIA THOMPSON
Drama Tutor

Tania Wilkey Thompson has been doing plays since she can remember! At Geneva, she earned a minor in Theatre, taking classes as well as acting, directing, and working backstage for over 30 different plays. Since then she has directed students of all ages in multiple performances including A Midsummer Night's Dream, The Imaginary Invalid, and Treasure Island

LYDIA CHU
Chinese Culture Club Tutor

Lydia Chu is a former Chinese professor who, together with her husband Peter, founded a Chinese Christian school and a children's center. With a heart for missions, she hopes to build a bridge for children in the U.S. to better understand China through its language and culture—nurturing a love for the people and a desire to be part of God's work there.
